

Station list Time table

Distance Direction

And More

TYO3 Tokyo Your-trip Orientation 3

BRUSHUP

TYO3 Manual

The station order of the nearest route or the route selected by tap / pull-down is displayed.

When you tap each station, it is refreshed by displaying the location of "Virtual Position" and you can perform various operations as if you were going to "Virtual Position"

You can select each station by tapping / pull-down the information card. In the pull-down list, the most recently connected routes are displayed in a list.

The nearest route or the timetable selected by tapping / pull-down is displayed. After a few minutes / Train direction Type etc./More After 9:00 pm, a "time display near the last train" will be added! Let's be in time for the last train ...

Refresh information at the current location. It becomes the latest information one by one when moving.

Select menu window

- Switch to Language mode
- Initialize location information / information card (train station)
- Train route Switch to station information card display
- Bus route Switch to the information card display at the bus stop
- Switch to FreeWifi information card display
- Switch to public toilet information card display
- Returns to the previous "virtual Position" information It is convenient to return when reset

※Use machine translation

Tap this icon to activate the route to the nearest route or the target you just tapped the information card.

